BOSTON, January 17.

Extract of a Letter from LONDON, dated Nov. 9, 1765.

THE glorious Behaviour of my Countrymen, their unshaken Resolution and steady Conduct, reflects the highest Honour upon them, and has altered the pernicious Politics adapted here by a Set of the most profligate ----- that ever formed a Ministry. The present Administration I believe will do all in their Power to reconcile Matters; and I hope will adopt a Scheme equally beneficial to the Colonies and to the Mother Country. --- I am against all Mobs, and with Concern hear of those lately in Boston: The hanging in Effigy and every Method of Ridicule and Contempt bestowed upon those who would dare to live upon the Hearts Blood of their Country, I think was laudable; but destroying their Houses, &c. no thinking sober Man can justify, and if encouraged, will tend to prevent and trample upon all Order and good Government, and must end in Murder, Anarchy, Confusion, and every Thing that is dreadful to Society. The House of Representatives will be (with you I dare say they are truly) the Guardians and Defenders of the People they represent, and of themselves: The People should meet and give them their Instructions, and they I dare say will take Care to guard their Liberties, and to defend themselves (when obliged) from Rapine, and ministerial as well as gubernatorial Avarice. I have ever thought that by the Principles of this most free Government, the People could not be taxed without their Consent, and nothing I have lately read has altered my Opinion; if I am mistaken, I am open to Conviction, and ready to receive Instruction, but not by an ipse dixit even of a King. --- Trials by Jury is established 29 Chap. Magna Charta; and an Act of Parliament made in Contradiction to that glorious Charter, Lord Coke tells us is void. --- Perhaps you may find, or I may see a Scot's Lawyer give his Opinion the other Way.

FEBRUARY 3.

Extract from Mr. Secretary Conway's Circular Letter to the Governor of a neighbouring Colony, dated St. James's, October 24, 1765.

--- " I F by lenient and persuasive Methods you can contribute to restore the Peace and Tranquility to the Provinces, on which their Welfare and Happiness depend, you will do a most acceptable and essential Service to your Country: But having taken every Step which the utmost Prudence and Lenity can dictate in Compassion to the Folly and Ignorance of some misguided People; You will not on the other Hand fail to use your utmost Power for repelling all Acts of Outrage and Violence, and to provide for the Maintenance of Peace and good Order in the Province by such a timely Exertion of Force, as that Occasion may require; for which Purpose you will make the proper Application to General Gage or Lord Colville, Commanders of his Majesty's Land and Naval Forces in America. For however unwillingly his Majesty may consent to the Exertion of such Powers as may endanger the Safety of a single Subject; yet can he not permit his own Dignity and the Authority of the British Legislature to be trampled on by Force and Violence, and in an avowed Contempt of all Order, Duty, and Decorum."

The Writers at Home say, "The public Papers are so filled with the Contests in America, &c. &c. that the Affairs of Old England appear to be over-looked as of little Concern." --- One Writer says, --- "What would never probably have been effected by voluntary Agreement among themselves [Unity] is likely to be accomplished by an ill-judged Measure of the Mother Country to involve them in a common Calamity of Oppression. --- Wise Men do not wonder at the Effects that have been produced, not only in Discontent and Disturbance, but also in what should be far more alarming, publick calls on each other, in their very News-Papers, to Union in a common Resistance of Oppression; for such they have expressly considered the Measures of the late Ministry with Regard to them, so that the open cry among them has become Liberty, Rights, and Defence."

WILMINGTON, Feb. 26.

Notwithstanding what passed, relative to the attorney-general's opinion on the seizure of the sloops, by capt. Lobb, for want of stamped clearances, as mentioned in our last; the inhabitants remained greatly dissatisfied, more particularly at Mr. Attorney's answer to the 3d query, where he says, "if prosecutions are intended against these vessels, they must be sent to Halifax, &c." And concluding in these words, viz. "Upon the whole, it is my opinion, that it is the duty of the collector to prosecute on the information he has received." In consequence of which opinion, the people from several of the counties round assembled at Wilmington, on Tuesday the 18th of this instant, appointed officers to take the command, compelled them to act, and entered into the following association, which was signed by all the principal gentlemen, freeholders, and other inhabitants of several counties; viz.

NORTH-CAROLINA.

We the subscribers, free and natural-born subjects of George the Third, true and lawful King of Great-Britain, and all its dependencies, (whom God preserve) whose sacred person, crown and dignity, we are ready and willing, at the expence of our lives and fortunes to defend, being fully convinced of the oppressive and arbitrary tendency of a late act of parliament, imposing stamp duties on the inhabitants of this province, and fundamentally subversive of the liberties and charters of North-America; truly sensible of the inestimable blessings of a free constitution, gloriously handed down to us by our brave forefathers, detesting rebellion, yet preferring death to Slavery, do, with all Loyalty to our M^t Gracious Sovereign, with all deference to the just laws of our country, and with a proper and necessary regard to ourselves and posterity, hereby mutually and solemnly plight our faith and honour, that we will at any risque whatsoever, and whenever called upon, unite, and truly and faithfully assist each other, to the best of our power, in preventing entirely the operation of the Stamp act.

Witness our Hands, this 13th Day of February, 1766.

On Wednesday the 19th, they proceeded to Brunswick, where their numbers were soon increased to upwards of a thousand, and had intelligence of several hundreds more on their march to join them. On their arrival at Brunswick, in order to remove all apprehensions on the part of his Excellency the Governor, the following letter was delivered him, by two gentlemen sent for that purpose; viz.

SIR,

The inhabitants dissatisfied with the particular restriction, laid on the trade of this river, only, have determined to march to Brunswick, in hopes of obtaining, in a peaceable manner, a redress of their grievances from the commanding officer of his Majesty's ships, and have compelled us to conduct them; we therefore think it our duty to acquaint your Excellency, that we are fully determined to protect from insult your person and property; and that if it will be agreeable to your Excellency, a guard of gentlemen shall be immediately detached for that purpose.

We have the Honour to be, with the greatest respect,
SIR, your Excellency's most obedient humble Servants.

Feb. 19. 1766. Wm. Tryon
To his Excellency Col. William Tryon,
Governor and Commander in Chief of North-Carolina.

On Thursday the 20th, a conference was held with the commanding officer of his Majesty's ships, and the collector, and in the afternoon matters were happily accommodated, and a promise obtained, that the port should for the future be freed from the particular restrictions heretofore laid on it, at least until the arrival of the Surveyor-General of the customs, and that vessels should be entered and cleared as usual.

On Friday the 21st, a party of men was sent for the collector, naval officer, and comptroller of the customs; the collector and naval officer were brought, and information was received, that the comptroller was at the Governor's; upon which a gentleman was dispatched to demand his attendance, which he refused to comply with; and the people being informed that he was detained by the Governor, a letter was then sent to request that his Excellency would be pleased to let him attend: they received for answer, that the comptroller was employed by his Excellency on dispatches for his Majesty's service, and that any gentleman who had business with him, might see him at the Governor's house.

A party was then immediately dispatched to fetch him, and marched directly to the Governor's: They halted near the house, by order, and a gentleman was once more sent to the comptroller, to desire he would not put the people to the disagreeable necessity of entering his Excellency's house, with a promise, that if he would come out, no injury should be offered his person, which he at last complied with. The party then joined the main body, and marched immediately into the town, drew up in a large circle, placing the custom-house officers in the center, where they all made oath, that they would not, directly or indirectly, by themselves, or any other person employed under them, sign or execute in their several respective offices, any stamped papers, until the Stamp-Act should be accepted of by the province. All the clerks of the courts, lawyers, &c. present, were sworn to the same effect. The people then immediately dispersed, in order to repair to their several places of abode.

It is well worthy of observation, that few instances can be produced, of such a number of men being together so long, and behaving so well; not the least noise or disturbances, nor any person seen disguised with liquor, during the whole time of their stay at Brunswick, neither was there an injury offered to any person, but the whole affair conducted with decency and spirit, worthy the imitation of all the SONS OF LIBERTY throughout the Continent.

In consequence of matters being accommodated, with regard to opening the port, the sloops Dobbs, Ruby, and Patience, under seizure, for want of stamped papers, were delivered up to the masters and owners, and arrived at this town on Friday the 21st instant.

LONDON, December 6.

On Wednesday, at the King's Arms tavern in Cornhill, there was a very numerous meeting of the merchants of this city, trading to North-America, when Mr. Alderman Trecothick being unanimously voted to the chair, a committee was appointed (consisting of the principal merchants trading to each colony) to solicit some effectual remedy in the present distressed state of the trade to the colonies, so essentially necessary for the support of the manufactures of this kingdom.

When Sir Robert Walpole was minister, in the Spanish war, a scheme was mentioned to him of taxing the American colonies; he smiled and said, "I will leave that for some of my successors, who may have more courage than I have, and less a friend to commerce than I am." He added, "It has been a maxim with me during my administration, to encourage the trade of the American colonies in the utmost latitude, (say it has been necessary to pass over some irregularities in their trade with Europe) for by encouraging them to an extensive growing foreign commerce, if they gain 500,000*l.* I am convinced that in two years afterwards full 50,000*l.* of their gains will be in his Majesty's exchequer by the labour and product of this kingdom, as immense quantities of every kind of our manufactures go thither; and as they increase in their foreign American trade, more of our produce will be wanted." He ended with saying, "This is taxing them more agreeable both to their own constitution and to ours."

Wednesday, Dec. 17. This day his Majesty came to the house of peers, and being in his royal robes seated on the throne with the usual solemnity, Sir Francis Molineux, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

"THE present general state of tranquility in Europe, gave me hopes, that it would not have been necessary to assemble my Parliament sooner than is usual in times of Peace."

"But, as matters of importance have lately occurred in some of my Colonies in America, which will demand the most serious attention of Parliament; and as further informations are daily expected from different parts of that country, of which I shall order the fullest accounts to be prepared for your consideration; I have thought fit to call you now together, in order that opportunity may thereby be given, to issue the necessary writs on the many Vacancies that have happened in the House of Commons since the last Session; so that the Parliament may be full, to proceed, immediately after the usual recess, on the consideration of such weighty matters as will then come before you."

THE Subscriber having lately purchased a Tract of Land in Christ-Church Parish, situated between Mr. Motte's Country Seat called Mount-Pleasant, and Mr. Haddrell's Estate, proposes to lay out the Front Part thereof into Lots, of about one Acre each, for the Use and Convenience of Gentlemen in Town and Country, who may chuse to become Purchasers: As no Spot in the Province can exceed this for Healthfulness and pleasant Situation, and so remarkably well known, as scarcely to need a Description; but, however, as there may be some persons, who possibly may be in want of such a Place of Retirement, unacquainted with it, a small sketch of some of the natural Advantages thereof may not be amiss.

1st, Extraordinary good Water which, upon repeated Trials, Chymically and Domestically, has been found to equal if not exceed any in the Province.

2d, A pure and South Aspect, without the least Marsh on the Front; a full view of the Sea, and of the Shipping in Rebellion-Road, and of the Front of Charlestown: Three Miles from Town, and Five from the Parish Church.

3d, The best Oysters and Salt Water Fish in the Province are got near it.

An agreeable House or two of Entertainment would be of infinite Service here, for the Accommodation of Sickly Persons, and perhaps keep many thousand Pounds yearly in the Province, which is now consumed in other Parts of the World, by People who go Abroad solely for the Recovery of their Health. As this Spot has been always esteemed the most healthy Part of the Province, the Advantages of a Retreat here, in Times when contagious Diseases rage in Town, must be obvious to all.

As the Land will not admit of above eighteen Lots, there will be reserved fifty Acres back for a Common as Pasture for the same. Any Person inclinable to purchase, may treat with the Subscriber, in whose Hands the Plan of the Lots may be seen. JONATHAN SCOTT.

Baptism a Divine Commandment to be observed. Being a SERMON preached at Barbican, October 9, 1765, at the Baptism of the Rev. Mr. Robert Carmichael, Minister of the Gospel in Edinburgh. Price, Five shillings.

DR. GILL has lately seen a new Edition of Mr. Dickinson's "Illustration of the Divine Right of Infant Baptism," published by several Gentlemen, whose Names stand to a Preface prefixed to it, in which they declare they have made some Additions, in marginal Notes, and other-ways, among which Dr. GILL observes the following Addition, p. 5. "St. IRENIUS (Irenaeus) who lived about 170 Years after the Death of CHRIST, being the Disciple of St. POLYCARP, who was the Disciple of St. JOHN the Evangelist, says, in his Epistle ad Rom. Lib. v. the Church received a Tradition from the Apostles to administer Baptism to little Children or Infants," which he charges as a Forgery, there being no such Passage in all the Works of IRENIUS extant. A like iniquitous Practice was used some years ago by Mr. SAMUEL FINLAY, with respect to the very same Passage, in a Controversy he had with Mr. ABEL MORGAN of New-Jersey. What a wretched Cause must Infant Baptism be to want such Management as this! He defies the above Gentlemen, and the whole literary World, to produce, or point out any such Passage in IRENIUS, and indeed, any Book or Chapter of his, of such a Title, in which this pretended Passage of his is said to be.
